Ante Mortem Examination of Negro Gliens

"What is the latest newseverywhere?" "Gives a line up on what's doing here and there, and tell what's the outlook." Questions and solicitations such as these come from every corner where labor is found, unveiling the anxiety of the workingman of the colored race to know what will be done with him now that he is organizing; and before any answer can be all take in an attitude that will conclude the greatest ease during the attempt to satisfy the eagerness of those who have awakened from industrial support and are allert as to the magnitudinous potentialities of the Negro race.

All the stir in labor circles away and the stirles are the stirles are stupor and are alert as to the magnitudinous potentialities of the Negro rules or circles among colored people on the All the stirm confined to the men, and where organization has already reached over innerty per cent; it has spread to the ranks of female domestics from laundress to house-mid and from shog pirt to seamstress. These poor girls who have toiled and spun in the past without satisfactory pay have heard the slogan from the camps of the Lindel union in having themselves organized for their own protection and advancement.

The whole race, then, is alive to the necessity of comparing together in promotion of interests that the gods declare to be worthy and experience decides to be undeniably just in the sight of all men. At the meetings of the secretaries busy for hours at a time and the rules to associate with the movement has increased to such intensity that the thermometer of enthusiasm has risen to boiling point.

had the thermometer of enthusiasm has rised to dominal had not paid and an all classes of the colored population on the Zone nothing, at the present time, occupies more of the attention of the people than the U.B. M. W.E. & R. S. L. whith general testimony and authentic prestige say has come to stay. The flowing crow the stay the control of the cont

Has there been any effort to satisfy the claims of the West Indian. The general impre-sion is that this Board is aspiring to the honor of perform-ing the "post mortem" examination of the colored employees.

If the case of these units of the canal force were humanely touched by the sharp-edged instruments of economic surgery the adventitious accretions which unnaturally attach to the whole fabric of the negro machinery could be removed and the prolonged life of the masses would be
